PABLO LÓPEZ

Pablo López was born in Málaga, in March 1984.

He is a Spanish singer and songwriter. He mostly sings melodic pop and pop rock songs. He also plays the piano and the Spanish guitar. He started to play the piano at the age of ten and he studied rock, music theory, harmony and chamber music at music school for ten years.

At the age of seventeen, he began to earn a living performing at hotels on the Costa del Sol.

Next, he moved to London, where he worked as a waiter in a pub.

Because he earned very little, he had to cover his living costs by playing songs on the London Tube, pressured by his friends.

His music career started in the pop band "Niño Raro", which was formed in 2007, but he became more famous in 2008 after taking part in "Operación Triunfo", a Spanish TV programme.

DISCOGRAPHY

His debut single was "Vi" taken from his debut album "One historias y un piano". The album was certified gold in Spain. The follow-up album "El mundo y los amantes inocentes", released in 2015, was a bigger hit and it was certified double platinum.

Pablo López was nominated for Best Contemporary Pop Vocal Album at the 17th Latin Grammy Awards for "El mundo y los amantes inocentes".

His most recent album "Camino, Fuego y Libertad", released in 2017, was certified gold too.
